

DIRECTION TRAFFIC SIGNS

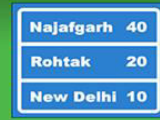

Advance Direction Sign On Rotary Inter-Section

Map Type Advance Direction Sign

Advance Direction/Destination Sign

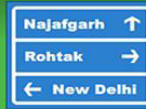

Reassurance Sign

Advance Direction Sign On Rotary Inter-Section

Map Type Advance Direction Sign

Advance Direction/Destination Sign

This sign is used where the nature of the right reverse bend is not obvious to approaching traffic and constitutes a hazard. If the first curve is to the right, a right reverse bend shall be used. If the first curve is to the left, a right reverse bend is used.

This sign is used where the nature of the reverse bend is not obvious to approaching traffic and constitutes a hazard. If the first curve is to the right, a right reverse bend shall be used. If the first curve is to the left, a left reverse bend is used.

Truck lay by

Toll Booth Ahead

This sign is displayed on long stretches of roads in rural area indicating the distance to the nearest public telephone on supplementary plate, where it is in inconspicuous position.

Advance Direction/Destination Sign

scooter and motor cycle stand

Cycle-rickshaw stand

Auto rickshaw stand

Taxi stand

Cycle stand

Parking both sides

Parking this side

This sign is installed at the places where cycle-rickshaws are to wait.

This sign is installed at the places where auto-rickshaws are to wait.

This sign is installed at the places where the taxis are expected to wait when not engaged/hired.

This sign is installed at the places where buses are expected to stop.

This sign is installed at the places where the Railways Station is situated nearby.

This sign is installed at the places where the Police Station is situated nearby.

This sign is installed at the places where repair facility is situated.

This sign is installed where the Airport is situated nearby.

This sign is used to guide pedestrians to the subway.

This sign is used on the main road, with appropriate variations to the symbol so as to show the road layout, where it is considered essential to give advance indication of a No Through Side Road.

This sign is used at the entrance to a road from where there is no exit.

This sign is used to indicate where facilities for resting and lodging are available. It is normally combined with a separate definition plate, indicating whether the place is a Rest House, Motel, Hotel etc.

This sign is used to indicate a place where light refreshment is available.

This sign is used to indicate where a regular eating place is located.

This sign is used to notify drivers on long stretches of roads in rural area of the first aid facility which may be helpful in case of emergency.

This sign is used to notify drivers of vehicles that they should take the precautions required near medical establishments and in particular that they should not make any unnecessary noise.

This sign is displayed on long stretches of roads in rural area at the entry to the road leading to the facility.

Place Identification Sign

Place Identification Sign

Destination Sign